

2015-05-14 / Vacation Photos

Boys Team Charity, Inc.

Conejo Valley graduating seniors

Joshua Budnik

Boys Team Charity, Inc. Conejo Valley League was formed in 2011 to give boys and their parents the opportunity to assist the community through team and individual projects.

The focus of the organization is growing, learning and giving back to the community together. The Boys Team Charity Conejo Valley League members live in Agoura Hills, Westlake Village, Newbury Park and Thousand Oaks. The league philanthropies include: Casa Pacifica, Conejo Recreation and Park District, Manna Conejo Food Bank, Many Mansions, My Stuff Bags Foundation, Heal the Bay, Habitat for Humanity, LIFE Animal Rescue and Mountains Restoration Trust. The following seniors are not pictured but are in the graduating BTC senior class: Alexander Kalof, Westlake High School; Justin Kerner, Oaks Christian High School; Michael Kress, Oaks Christian High School; Nicholas MacLea, Westlake High School; Bill Robi, Westlake High School; Connor Ryan, Crespi High School; and Nathaniel Smith, Newbury Park High School.

Photos courtesy of Cornerstone Photography, O'Connor Bros. Photography and Peloso Photography

Joshua Budnik, son of Barnard and Melissa Budnik, attends Westlake High School, where he is a part of the advanced anatomy club; Future Business Leaders of America, and track and field team. Budnick received the U.S. President's Volunteer Service Award, is an advanced anatomy honors student, and was a scholarathlete for track and field. He also is a member of the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps at Point Mugu where he earned ribbons for community service, marksmanship and academic achievement. His favorite philanthropy is being part of beach clean-ups at Leo Carrillo and Zuma beaches. He plans to study biology/pre-med in the fall.

Where's the story?

16 Points Mentioned

Tyler Banning, son of Winthrop and Melissa Banning, attends Oaks Christian High School, where he is a member of Lion's Voice, National Honor Society and both the baseball and basketball teams. Banning is a Top Ten Scholar and is on the headmaster's list. His favorite Boys Team Charity philanthropy is Challenger Baseball. Banning plans on majoring in mechanical engineering at either the Georgia Institute of Technology or Vanderbilt University.

Tyler Banning

Joseph Czarske

Joseph Czarske, son of Eric and Karen Czarske, attends Agoura High School, where he is a four-year varsity letter member of the baseball team. Czarske is a scholar-athlete and was selected to the All-Marmonte League baseball team as a junior. His favorite philanthropy is Conejo Recreation and Park District's Therapeutic Recreation Unit, which provides recreational opportunities to residents of the Conejo Valley and surrounding areas with disabilities. He plans to study criminal justice at the University of Arizona, where he received a baseball scholarship.

Alexander James Fealy, son of Michael and Peri Fealy, attends Westlake High School, where he is a WISE adviser, WOW counselor, in Future Business Leaders of America, CSF and the Homeless Helpers Club. Fealy is a student scholar-athlete and has run cross country for four years and varsity track and field. He is a recipient of the 2015 Presidential Service Award. Fealy worked above and beyond hours in BTC with LIFE Animal Rescue. His favorite philanthropies are Ride 2 Recovery and Heal the Bay. He plans to attend the Weber Honors College at San Diego State University and major in biology/ pre-med.

Alexander James Fealy

Mitchell Douglas Galer, son of Scott and Stacy Galer, attends Agoura High School, where he played football for two years and has been a member of the lacrosse team all four years. He was named team captain this year. Galer is a youth lacrosse referee, youth lacrosse coach and was chosen to be an undergraduate engineering intern at the Jet Propulsion Lab last summer. His favorite philanthropy is the football program at Conejo Recreation and Park District's Therapeutic Recreation Unit. He plans to major in physics at MIT.

Matthew Gladstone, son of Kenneth and Patricia Gladstone, attends Oak Park High School, where he is a member of the rocket club, solar cup club, robotics club and Asia club. Gladstone is an AP Scholar with honors; CSF life member and summa cum laude with highest honors. In BTC he has held the media manager office for two years. Gladstone's favorite philanthropy is Family Science Night. He plans to major in molecular biology in the fall.

Mitchell Douglas Galer

Matthew Harrison Goldberg, son of Brian and Janine Goldberg, attends Agoura High School, where he is a senior class officer. During his senior year, Goldberg played varsity basketball and football, for which he was named co-MVP for the Canyon League and First Team All Ventura County. He is a National Football Foundation scholar-athlete, AP Scholar and National Merit Scholar. His favorite philanthropy is Manna Conejo Food Bank. Goldberg tutors for Danny's Tutoring and will attend the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis, where he will also play football.

Nicholas A. Gomez, son of Peter and Diane Gomez, attends Oaks Christian High School, where he is a Lion's Voice ambassador, a member of the National Honors Society and the business and investment club. Gomez also plays varsity water polo and is on the swim team. He is a Top Ten Scholar, scholar-athlete, maxima cum laude and a recipient of the Lion Heart Award. Additionally, Gomez is a member of the National Association of Rocketry. While in Boys Team Charity he held the offices of vice president and co-treasurer. His favorite philanthropy is Manna Conejo Food Bank. He plans to major in Engineering at Stanford University.

Matthew Gladstone

Matthew Harrison Goldberg

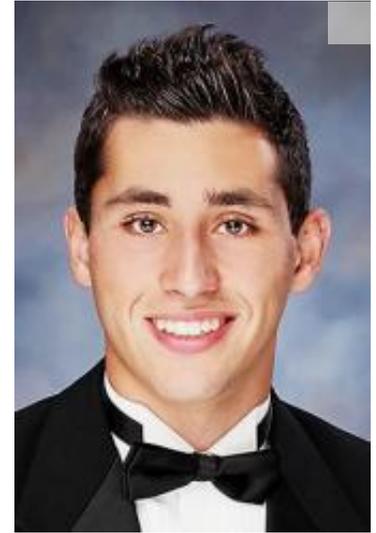

Kyle Gosland, son of Joe and Krista Gosland, attends Westlake High School, where is a varsity baseball player. Gosland is a scholar-athlete, AP Scholar and a Commended Student in the National Merit Scholarship program. His favorite philanthropy is LIFE Animal Rescue, whose mission is to rescue homeless or abandoned dogs and cats and place them in permanent, responsible, and loving homes. Gosland will attend Clemson University and plans to go into the medical field.

Andrew Gourley, son of Sonny and Abbie Gourley, attends Westlake High School, where he is president of the advanced anatomy club; president of the choral music department; and a member of the varsity basketball team. Gourley is an AP Scholar of Distinction, a National Merit Scholar and a four-year scholarathlete. His favorite philanthropy is Conejo Recreation and Park District's Therapeutic Recreation basketball program. He plans to study medicine.

Benjamin Jay Hisgilov, son of Haggai Hisgilov and David and Lisa Richardson, attends Westlake High School, where he plays varsity basketball and was the team's defensive MVP and member of the Marmonte League champion team. He is a scholar-athlete and a member of the environmental science club. As a BTC member, he has held offices of treasurer and vice president. His favorite philanthropies are Manna Conejo Food Bank and beach clean-up. He plans to major in environmental science and physics in the fall.

David George Maslan, son of Cathy and Ralph Maslan, attends Oak Park High School, where he is a member of the surf club. Maslan tutors at Park Oaks Tutor and has been involved with the senior youth fellowship program at Westminster Presbyterian Church and the Pha Yar Taung Education Foundation. He is a recipient of the Bronze and Silver Duke of Edinburgh International Award. His favorite philanthropy is Many Mansions Summer Camp. Maslan plans to be a construction management major at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in the fall.

Nicholas A. Gomez

Kyle Gosland

Jordan Shapiro, son of Les and Samantha Shapiro, attends Westlake High School, where he was on the golf team for two years. As a member of BTC, Manna has been Jordan's favorite philanthropy. "I have enjoyed serving the hungry in the Conejo Valley through helping stock the shelves at Manna or help clients shop for food," he said. Manna was founded in 1971 and serves, on average, more than 1,400 people per month. Jordan plans to major in business in the fall at Arizona State University.

Nicholas D. Shore, son of David and Susan Shore, attends Oaks Christian High School, where he is a Lion's Voice Ambassador and a member of the Business and Investment Club. He played baseball for Oaks Christian for three years and is a member of National Honor Society since 2013. Shore has been on the headmaster's list since 2011 and is a Lion's Scholar Athletic Award recipient. Additionally, he is a Jersey Mike's crew member and team manager for Newbury Park PONY Baseball. In BTC, Shore has been president, vice president and secretary and received the Philanthropy Achievement Award. His favorite philanthropies are iCan Bike and Challenger Baseball. Shore plans to major in engineering in the fall.

Andrew Gourley

Alexander Raymond Smith, son of Stephen and Lisa Smith, attends Westlake High School, where he is a member of Future Business Leaders of America and participated in the California FBLA Gold Coast Section Leadership Conference last year. Smith was a starter for the Warriors JV lacrosse team both freshman and sophomore years. He is a team member for Chick-Fil-A, Thousand Oaks, since last year and has served two terms as a treasurer for BTC. As one of the founding members of BTC, Smith's favorite philanthropy is Casa Pacifica. He plans to major in biology and business in the fall.

Benjamin Jay Hisgilov

Daniel John Sutman, son of Bill and Jennifer Sutman, attends Oaks Christian High School, where he is a team captain for the varsity tennis team. Sutman played singles on the CIF Tennis Champion squad last year and is an honors student, AP Scholar, Lion Scholar Athlete and is on the headmaster's list. He is a tennis camp counselor during the summer and last year he received the BTC Philanthropy Achievement Award. His favorite philanthropy is Conejo Recreation and Park District's Therapeutic Recreation Unit Special Olympics tennis program. Sutman will attend Lehigh University in the College of Business and Economics.

Nicholas Timothy Wennes, son of Tim and Stefanie Wennes, attends Oaks Christian High School, where he is a member of Lions Voice, breakfast club and has played three years on the varsity golf team. Wennes is also a volunteer golf coach for USGLL, a nonprofit golf little league.

In 2014 Wennes received the Presidential Volunteer Award for BTC and earned the Presidential Award for USGLL as well. His favorite philanthropy is iCan Bike. Wennes will major in business at the University of Colorado in the fall.

David George Maslan

Harrison James Wong, son of James and Christine Wong, attends Agoura High School, where he was a cocaptain on the varsity football team and also played varsity tennis. Wong is a scholar-athlete and served as president of BTC his senior year. His favorite philanthropies are Casa Pacifica, Many Mansions and Conejo Recreation and Park District. As a founding member of BTC, Wong says, "Because of my experience with Boys Team Charity, I know I will always give back to organizations and people in need." Wong will attend Loyola Marymount University School of Film and Television in the fall.

Jordan Shapiro

Nicholas D. Shore

Alexander Raymond Smith

Daniel John Sutman

Nicholas Timothy Wennes

Harrison James Wong

Return to top

Copyright © 2005-2015 J.Bee NP Publishing, Ltd., All Rights Reserved.

Newspaper web site content management software and services

